Local organization honored

Guardian Angels for Soldier's Pet (GAFSP) announced Saturday it has been named a "2017 Top-Rated Nonprofit" by GreatNonprofits, a provider of user reviews of charities and nonprofits.

GAFSP, headquartered in Coryell County, provides various programs on a national basis and within the state of Texas, resulting in deploying troops and veterans facing unforeseen inpatient medical issues and homelessness being able to be reunited with their beloved furbabies at the end of pre-determined fostering term.

"We are honored to be named a 2017 Top-Rated Nonprofit," says Linda Spurlin-Dominik, CEO of GAFSP. "We are proud of our accomplishments this year, including five pets reunited this year after being in our Pet Foster Home program and working with the VA centers helping three wounded warriors, 12 veterans and 18 beloved furbabies thus far during 2017.

The Top-Rated Nonprofit Award is based on the rating and number of reviews that Soldier's Pet has received from volunteers, donors and aid recipients.

"Guardian Angels for Soldier's Pet is a great example of a nonprofit making a real difference in their community," said Perla Ni, CEO of GreatNonprofits. "Their award is well-deserved recognition not only of their work, but the tremendous support they receive, as shown by the many outstanding reviews they have received from people who have direct experience working with Guardian Angels for Soldier's pet."
